

AASAI (American Association for Social advancement of India)Inc.

presents

Nayaki

A Poetic Journey

A solo dance theater

(Bharatha Natyam – Classical Dance of India)

based on verses by the mystic poet Thirumangai Alwar

Dancer:

Jothi Raghavan

With Musician from India

Vocal: N. Sasidaran • Mridangam: N. Narayanaswamy

Flute: H.S. Venugopal • Veena: Revathi Ramaswamy

Music Composed by: Rajkumar Bharathi

Date: 27th June 2009 at 6:00 p.m.

Venue: Sorenson Theater for the Performing Arts, Babson College Wellesley MA

Tickets: $ 35, $25, $15 ($15 tickets are discounted at $10 for Students and seniors)

“Nayaki” the dance production is based on the intense love poems of the mystic poet Thirumangai Alwar. The poems are passionate and philosophical depicting the longing of the individual soul for the union with the supreme.

The agony and the ecstasy of Parakala Nayaki - a lovelorn maiden, a persona that the poet assumes to express his love and longing for his beloved Narayana is the core of “Nayaki” – The dance production - A poetic journey.

Purchase Tickets on line at www.lokvani.com/www.sulekha.com

Or mail a check to

AASAI

P O Box 49, Westford MA 01886

Call (978)392-4677 for information

Proceeds from the performance

go to charities in India

www.aasai.org

